REPORT OF THE UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

The Right Hon. W. L. MACKENZIE KING, C.M.G., M.P.,
Secretary of State for External Affairs,
Ottawa.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit the usual brief survey of the more important matters involving Canada's external relations which came before the department during the past year.

EUROPEAN WAR

PEACE TREATIES

The Treaty of Peace with Turkey, signed at Lausanne, July 24, 1923, having been duly ratified by Turkey, and by Great Britain, Italy and Japan, and the ratifications deposited at Paris on August 6, 1924, public notification was made by His Majesty of the termination of the war as from that date.

The Greek Minorities Treaty and the Treaty respecting Thrace, signed by Sir George Perley as Canadian plenipotentiary at Sèvres on August 10, 1920, were also ratified and came into force on the same date.

The King's ratification of the protocol of an amendment to Article 393 of the Treaty of Versailles and the corresponding articles of the other peace treaties, was deposited with the Secretary-General of the League of Nations on October 20, 1923.

Covenant of the League of Nations.—The protocols embodying four amendments to the sixteenth article (adopted by the Second Assembly) were signed at Geneva on behalf of Canada by Mr. Lucien Pcaud, Secretary, High Commissioner's Office, London, on November 24, 1923. Amendments to Article 6 and to Articles 12, 13 and 15 of the Covenant, having been ratified by the members whose representatives compose the council and by a majority of the members whose representatives compose the assembly, came into force, the first as from August 13, 1924, the others as from September 26, 1924.

OTHER TREATIES WITH FOREIGN POWERS

International Convention for the Suppression of Obscene Publications.—This convention was adopted by an international conference for the suppression of the circulation of and traffic in obscene publications, convened under the auspices of the League of Nations at Geneva on August 31, 1923. Though not represented at the conference, Canada decided to adhere to the convention, and her adhesion was duly notified to the Secretary-General of the League, becoming effective from the receipt of such notification on May 31, 1924.

Washington Conference Treaties.—The ratifications of the powers (British Empire, United States of America, France, Italy and Japan) signatories of the Treaty to Limit Naval Armament, concluded February 6, 1922, were on August 17, 1923, deposited at Washington, and as a result of such ratification the Treaty of Alliance between Great Britain and Japan of July 13, 1911, was terminated. Ratifications were at the same time deposited by the same powers, excepting Italy, of the Treaty relating to Insular Possessions in the Pacific Ocean, concluded December 13, 1921, and of the treaty supplementary thereto, concluded February 6, 1922. In all these ratifications Canada concurred.

Treaty regarding Spitzbergen.—With Canada's concurrence this treaty, signed February 9, 1920, was ratified by the King, the Instrument of Ratification being deposited at Paris with the French Government on December 29, 1923. It does not, however, become effective until ratified by all the signatory powers, Japan, Norway and Sweden not having yet ratified it.

Treaties with Greece.—Notice was given by Greece on September 10, 1924, to terminate finally all her commercial agreements with the British Empire as from September 10, 1924. They had been provisionally operative since their first denunciation in March, 1919.

International Copyright Convention. 1908.—Canada's accession to the revised Copyright Convention, signed at Berlin on November 13, 1908, and to the Additional Protocol signed at Berne, March 20, 1914, to take effect as from January 1, 1924, was notified to the Swiss Government. This accession is subject to restrictions in respect of authors under the jurisdiction of the United States of America.

Aerial Navigation Convention, 1919.—The International Commission for Air Navigation at its Fourth Session in London, June 30, 1923, prepared a Protocol embodying amendments to Article 34 of this Convention, so that the British Empire should have but one vote on the International Commission, so that three of the five States, British Empire, United States of America, France, Italy and Japan, must approve of any modification made in the annexes to the Convention, and so that the allocation of expenses was altered. This Protocol was approved by Canada and signed on her behalf by the Honourable Peter Larkin. The King's ratification of the Protocol of October 27, 1922, amending Article 5 of the Convention, was deposited at Paris on December 19, 1923.

Belgo-Canadian Commercial Convention.—At Ottawa on July 3, 1924, a Commercial Convention between Canada and the Economic Union of Belgium and Luxemburg, was signed by the Honourable J. A. Robb, Acting Minister of Finance, and the Honourable H. S. Béland, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, as Canadian plenipotentiaries, and Mr. de Selys, Consul General of Belgium, representing His Majesty the King of the Belgians. The ratifications of this treaty were duly exchanged at Ottawa on October 22, 1924, by Mr. Robb and Mr. J. Van Rickstal, Belgian Consul at Montreal.

Arbitration Agreement with Spain.—Canada concurring, the Arbitration Agreement between His Majesty and Spain, signed February 27, 1904, was, by an exchange of notes, renewed for a further period of five years from February 26, 1924.

Arbitration Convention with Italy.—By an exchange of notes, dated August 14, 1923, this Convention was renewed for a further period of five years from February 1, 1924, Canada concurring to such renewal.

Commercial Convention between Canada and Italy, 1923.—Ratifications of this Convention were duly exchanged at London on January 8, 1924.

Agreement with Finland regarding Tonnage Measurement.—On June 21, 1924, with Canada's concurrence, an agreement was signed between His Majesty's Government and the Government of Finland, providing for the reciprocal recognition of tonnage measurement certificates of British and Finnish ships. The agreement as a whole, or separately, as to Canada, is subject to termination by a twelve months' notice given by either party.

Treaty of Commerce and Navigation with Muscat.—On February 11, 1923, an agreement was entered into with the Sultan of Muscat, prolonging for a year from that date the treaty of March 19, 1891, to which Canada has acceded. Provision is included in the agreement for Canada's withdrawal from the treaty on notice.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 25

Liquor Treaty with the United States.—A convention with the United States for the purpose of avoiding difficulties likely to arise in connection with the United States laws regarding alcoholic beverages, was signed at Washington on January 23, 1924, and after it had been approved by the Canadian Parliament, ratifications were duly exchanged, with the concurrence of the Canadian Government, at the same place on May 22, 1924.

Halibut Fisheries Treaty with the United States.—On May 31, 1924, the United States Senate approved this treaty as signed March 2, 1923, and the ratifications were duly exchanged at Washington by the Honourable Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, and Mr. Secretary Hughes, on October 21, 1924.

Treaty with the United States regarding Smuggling Offences.—A treaty between Canada and the United States for the suppression of smuggling offences, and offences against the narcotic laws of the two countries, was negotiated and signed by the Honourable E. Lapointe, as Canadian plenipotentiary, and Mr. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States, as United States plenipotentiary, on June 6, 1924. It contains a provision limiting the carriage of alcoholic liquors in transit through Alaska to Yukon Territory. It awaits the approval of the United States Senate and the exchange of ratifications before becoming operative.

Copyright Arrangement with the United States.—Under the provisions of the respective laws of the two countries (Canadian Copyright Act, 1921, and Act of United States Congress, approved March 4, 1909) an arrangement was entered into with the United States, effective as from January 1, 1924, by which the benefits of the Act of either country were reciprocally extended to the citizens of the other.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES

Assembly of the League of Nations.—The Fourth General Assembly of the League of Nations was convened at Geneva on September 3, 1923, the session terminating on the 29th of that month. The delegates appointed to represent Canada were the Honourable Sir Lomer Gouin, Minister of Justice, the Honourable George P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, and the Honourable Peter C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada in London—the last named, however, was unfortunately unable to attend the meetings.

The Canadian proposal for the amendment of Article 10 of the Covenant was further considered, and it was finally decided, while leaving the text of the article unchanged, to recommend the adoption of an interpretative resolution intended to achieve the purposes aimed at by Canada. The single vote Persia, however, cast against this resolution prevented its adoption.

It was decided to circulate to the members of the League for consideration, the draft treaty of mutual assistance, submitted by the Temporary Mixed Commission, and the Assembly further recommended that that commission be invited to prepare a new convention or conventions to replace the Treaty of St. Germain for the Control of Traffic in Arms, and to continue for another year the work which it had undertaken.

Abyssinia and the Irish Free State were admitted to membership in the League.

Monsieur Epitacio da Silva Pessoa, who had been nominated by Brazil, was elected to succeed Monsieur Ruy Barbosa as Judge of the Permanent Court of International Justice.

Conditions not proving favourable to the establishment of a definitive scale for allocation of expenses, the provisional scale of 1923 was continued with slight modifications.

Conference on Communications and Transit.—The Second General Conference on Communications and Transit was convened by the Council of the League of Nations in pursuance of the resolution adopted by the Third Assembly at Geneva on November 15, 1923, and continued its sittings until December 9. The Dominion was represented by Mr. Lucien Pacaud, Secretary, High Commissioner's Office, London. The conference adopted four draft conventions submitted to it as follows:—

1. Convention and Statute regarding the International Regime of Railways;
2. Convention and Statute regarding Maritime Ports;
3. Convention and Statute regarding Transmission in Transit of Electric Power;
4. Convention and Statute regarding the Development of Hydraulic Power affecting more than one State.

The question of the ratification of these conventions by Canada is still under consideration.

International Labour Conference.—The Fifth Session of this Conference was held at Geneva from the 22nd to the 29th October, 1923, Canada being represented by Mr. Philippe Roy, Canadian Commissioner General in Paris, and Miss Caroline E. Carmichael, of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. A recommendation was adopted concerning the general principles for the organization of systems of inspection to secure the enforcement of laws and regulations for the protection of workers.

International Conference on Customs Formalities.—An International Conference on Customs Formalities, convened by the Council of the League of Nations, met at Geneva from October 15 to November 3, 1923, Mr. Philippe Roy acting as Canada's representative. An International Convention relative to the Simplification of Customs Formalities was adopted by the conference, though not signed by the Canadian representative. It has not been ratified by Canada.

Inter-Allied Conference on German Reparations.—The Reparation Commission constituted under the Treaty of Versailles, 1919 (German Peace) having appointed two Committees of Experts to report upon measures for balancing the budget and stabilizing the currency of Germany, and the means for bringing German exported capital back to Germany, communicated their reports when received and approved to the interested Governments on April 17, 1924. For the purpose of considering the questions arising from these reports, a Conference of Delegates of the Allied and German Governments was assembled at London on July 16, 1924, the Honourable N. A. Belcourt being appointed to represent Canada at the conference.

With the object of bringing into operation the plan proposed by the experts (known generally as the Dawes plan) four Agreements,—

1. Between the Allied Governments and the German Government concerning the agreement of August 9, 1924;
2. Between the Allied Governments and the German Government to carry out the experts' plan of April 9, 1924;
3. Between the Allied Governments to carry out the experts' plan of April 9, 1924; and
4. Between the Governments represented on the Reparation Commission to modify Annex II to Part VIII of the Treaty of Versailles; were signed at London, August 30, 1924.

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 25

The first three of these agreements were signed by the Canadian plenipotentiary.

International Postal Conference.—An International Postal Conference was held at Stockholm in June, 1924, Canada's representatives at such conference being Mr. P. T. Coolican, General Superintendent of the Postal Service, W. J. Glover, the Financial Superintendent, and Arthur Webster, Secretary of the Post Office Department.

International Seed Testing Conference.—The meetings of the Second International Seed Testing Conference were held in England from the 7th to the 12th of July, 1924, Mr. G. H. Clark, Dominion Seed Commissioner, attending as Canadian representative.

THE PASSPORT OFFICE

The volume of business of this office has been steadily maintained, over 25,000 passports having been issued, and some 6,500 renewals granted. The passport fee was in February increased to $5, and the revenue accruing from the business has reached a total of close on $117,000, for the year.

It only remains for me to express my appreciation of the manner in which the members of the staff have discharged their duties.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOSEPH POPE,

Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs.

OTTAWA, October 31, 1924.
